5. [ ] Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, expressed to [ ] and me his views on community budget practices in light of the changes in the intelligence structure. Woodruff commented that it would be difficult for the Director to be held responsible for the Fiscal 1973 budget and said all he thought the Committee would expect from him this year would be a presentation of his views on the subject and how he proposes to discuss the community budget in his Fiscal 1974 presentation.

1. [ ] Made arrangements for [ ] and myself to meet with Bill Woodruff, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, informally Monday morning at 10 a.m. to obtain from Woodruff views which he says he has with regard to budget aspects of the changes in the intelligence community structure.

Woodruff also asked if we could have someone come up to change a safe combination on one of their safes and see if we could open a safe which they believe is jammed. A member of the Security office and I will take care of this tomorrow morning.

4.  Met with William Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, and brought him up-to-date on briefing items from 22 December 1971 through 13 January 1972.

Woodruff informed me that Pete Bonner (retired Marine Corps Colonel) is now working on the Committee staff and in a short time will replace Mr. Ed Hartung as Senator Milton Young's Minority Counsel on the staff. Bonner has worked closely with Woodruff and others over the years and recently served a short stint as a special assistant to Mr. Rady Johnson, Assistant to the Secretary of Defense for Legislative Affairs.

Woodruff commented at lunch that he thought the arrangements made for the handling of the Agency's budget in response to Senator Stennis' desires would turn out to be a mistake, at least as far as funds for Laos were concerned. He added that instead of getting Stennis off the hook for Agency expenditures there he would now be saddled with the authorization for the war in Laos under the Defense bill with a subsequent transfer of funds to the Agency.

I briefed Woodruff on our meeting earlier with Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, on the subject of liquidation funds for the Radios. Woodruff said Ralph Preston had called him about this earlier. Mr. Mahon's position does not appear to have changed Woodruff's views on the subject, however.

1. [REDACTED] Advised Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, of our conversations with Ralph Preston, Staff Assistant, House Appropriations Committee, regarding use of liquidation funds for the Radios. I told Woodruff of Preston's feeling that the matter should be taken up with Chairman Mahon and that we will be doing this in the near future. I told him that if Mr. Mahon had no problem we would go ahead as Colonel White had originally discussed with him; if there is a problem we will be back in touch with him.
